Additional Terms & Conditions

Scratches / Refunds

Entries may be cancelled / scratched by submitting a written request to the NRCHA office. Date of the written request will be used to determine applicable refunds. Refund amount will be determined by comparing the written request receipt date against payment due dates listed above.

- Payments made prior to the written request and after due dates will not be refunded.
- Payments made prior to the written request and prior to future due dates will be refunded.
- Payments made after the draw will be refunded video / NRCHA fees only.

Horses that are scratched after the draw may only re-enter as a late entry and will be placed in the draw according to NRCHA Rule 9.4.1. They will not be allowed to purchase a slot.

Payment Information

It is the owner's responsibility to make the payments by the due date. NRCHA will not be responsible for entries or payments received late. All checks for entry and other fees are to be made payable to the National Reined Cow Horse Association (in US Funds) and payments should be sent by guaranteed mail to insure delivery. Payments must be postmarked on or before the due date, or late penalties will be assessed. There will be no grace period. When the postmark date falls on Sunday or an official holiday that the US Postal Service is not in operation, postmarks of the next day of operation will be accepted with no late fees. Payments returned due to insufficient funds will constitute an incomplete entry and the responsible party will be subject to all provisions of NRCHA rule 1.1.6 and all late fees upon re-entry.

Substitutions

- Horse Substitution:
 - The substitute horse must be Owned by the same person or persons
 - The following items must be sent to the NRCHA office or presented to the Horse Show Office at the show by noon the day before the entered division starts:
 - A veterinary certificate or statement stating why the horse entered will be unable to work
 - A new entry form
 - A copy of the new entry's registration papers or a Grade Horse Competition License
 - A substitution fee of 10% of the total entry fee paid to date
 - Substitutions that do not provide all the items listed above will be considered a late entry and will be assessed the late entry fees due at time of entry.

- Rider Substitution:
 - Process
 - Prior to August 31, rider substitutions can be completed by contacting the NRCHA Office.
 - After August 31 and prior to October 2, rider substitutions can be completed by contacting the NRCHA Office but require Show Committee approval.
 - Substituted riders can only compete in divisions they are eligible for, regardless of what divisions the horse was entered in prior to the rider substitution.
 - If the substituted rider is eligible for more divisions than the horse was originally entered in, those divisions will be added.
 - If the substituted rider is eligible for fewer divisions than the horse was originally entered in, ineligible divisions will be removed.
 - On or after October 3
 - New riders must currently be entered in the futurity.
 - Substitution due to accident or illness (injury of original rider) will be done according to NRCHA rule 10.1.2.6.
 - Require review and approval of the Show Committee

Late Entries

Late entries will be accepted until noon the day prior to the beginning of each division. Late entries will be assessed all entry fees due at time of entry plus late entry penalties of 50% of entry fees and all remaining payments when due. Entries received after the draw has been completed (September 12) will be placed in the draw, once entries close, according to NRCHA rule 9.4.1.

Change of Ownership

If any entry changes ownership, the entry will retain eligibility by complying with the following steps:

1. Notification of change in ownership, and the intention of the new owner to continue the entry.
2. Provide the NRCHA with a copy of the corrected registration papers or Grade Horse Competition License showing the new owner.
3. Payment of remaining fees when due.
4. The new owner must be a current member of the NRCHA.
5. The Futurity management reserves the right to approve all ownership transfers.
6. Owner Transfer Policy for transfers on the show grounds: ALL Open horse owner transfers must be given to the Horse Show office. The original papers, breed association transfer form, and appropriate fees must be given to the Horse Show Office. The Horse Show Office will mail the transfer to the breed association.

Equipment

1. Entries will be shown in a standard headstall (brow-band, shaped ear or split ear) using a “D” or “O” Ring type, no larger than 4 inches in diameter on the inside of the ring. They must have a broken, 2-piece mouth piece, being a minimum of 5/16 inch in diameter, measured 1 inch in from the inside of the ring on the snaffle bit, with a gradual decrease to center of the snaffle. The mouthpiece should be round, oval or egg-shaped, smooth and unwrapped metal. It may be inlaid, but must be smooth. Latex wrap is not acceptable. These bits must be such that when the reins are pulled no undue leverage is applied, i.e. the inside of the circumference of the ring must be free of rein, curb, or head stall attachments.
2. A leather or other woven material chin strap of any width is to be used. No iron, chain or other material may be used. Chin strap is allowed to include metal buckles and/or keepers on snaffle bits only.

3. Split or tied reins may be used. Entries must be shown with both hands on the reins, except in the herd work portion of the competition.
4. After each work, headstalls must be dropped and viewed by the appointed representative of the Futurity and mouth checked.
5. One hour prior to and during the performance, all illegal equipment must be removed from the arena. This includes turn-back horses and herd holders.
6. Size and design of horseshoes will be at the exhibitor's discretion.

Waiver and Release of Liability: By signing below, I hereby acknowledge that I meet the criteria for eligibility to compete in the classes entered according to the guidelines set forth in the NRCHA Rule Book. Registrant also acknowledges that riding and showing reined cow horses are inherently dangerous activities that expose the participant to a substantial risk of serious property damage, personal injury, or death. In consideration for the right to participate in such activities, or any other activity that the registrant may participate in at the NRCHA Snaffle Bit Futurity, registrant assumes the risk of injury or death of participating in those activities and hereby releases National Reined Cow Horse Association ("NRCHA") and its employees, representatives and all other agents associated with NRCHA from liability for any personal injury, property damage, or death that occurs from those activities. Registrant further agrees to release and hold harmless NRCHA, its employees, representatives, agents and anyone else working at the event who through negligence or carelessness otherwise might be liable in damages to registrant. This release and waiver of liability shall be binding on Registrants heirs, representatives, dependents, and successors in interest. I have read and understand the terms and conditions of the entry into this event and agree to abide by those terms and conditions and the NRCHA Rule Book. I agree as a condition of in consideration of acceptance of entry the National Reined Cow Horse Association may use or assign photographs, videos, audios, cablecasts or other likeness of me and my horse taken during the course of competition for the promotion, coverage or benefit of the competition, sport or the NRCHA. Those likenesses shall not be used to advertise a product and they may not be used in such a way to jeopardize Non Pro/Amateur status. I hereby expressly and irrevocably waive and release rights in connection with such use, including any claim to compensation, invasion of privacy, right of publicity or to misappropriation. I have the authority and hereby do, by making this entry, assume responsibility for and bind owner, rider and/or agent to the terms and conditions of this Release and Waiver of Liability. I warrant that I am of legal age, or am the parent or legal guardian of the participant named above, and that I have read and fully understand the foregoing terms.
